Jump pack: Move ignores the extra cost of obstacles and may cross gaps up to half the model's Move. In zero-g, the model may change direction freely during a Move and stop anywhere, even away from a surface (it still counts as unbraced).
Low-light optics: The carrier has the Low-light skill: it ignores the darkness penalty.

Skills

Leader: A Rally made by a Leader, or on a model within 6" and in line of sight of a Leader, removes 2 Suppression instead of 1. At initiative, each side adds the Nerve of its Leader with the highest Nerve.
Void-trained: Ignores the unbraced zero-g penalty; may push off and stop at any surface.

Enemy orders

Gym 1: First Breach · stopgap until Phase 3

Who activates next

1. A model with 3+ Suppression (it Rallies).
2. A model in the open with a target in sight.
3. A model in cover with a target in sight.
4. Any other model, nearest the data core first.

Each action: first that applies

All: If Pinned: Rally, then Find Cover or Move to the nearest cover. If in the open with cover within one Move: Move to it.
Asset Security Officer: Target within short range: Aim, then Shoot. Otherwise Move to cover closer to the target, then Shoot. No target in sight: go on Overwatch facing the nearest door.
Asset Security Gunner: Two or more targets in sight: Suppressive Fire at the nearest, then Shoot another. One target: Shoot it twice. None: Overwatch.
Recovery Captain: Rally the most suppressed friend within 6", then act as an Officer. Never leaves the control room.

Rules

• Targets: the nearest visible Task Force Boone model not in cover; if all are in cover, the one in the least cover; ties by dice.
• Reactions: a model on Overwatch always Shoots at the first trigger it can. An unactivated model reacts only when shot at in the open, by Moving to cover.
• Close combat: an enemy model Breaks only if it lost the last exchange and has a Wounded marker or 3+ Suppression.
• Choices the orders don't settle: the option nearest the data core, then the lowest-numbered model.
